EMERGING PLAYWRIGHTS UNIT

Supported by Manitoba Association of Playwrights

CALL FOR SUBMISSION

Prairie Theatre Exchange with the support of Manitoba Association of Playwrights is proud to announce the formation of a bi-annual Emerging Playwrights Unit. The Unit will be comprised of playwrights/creators who self-identify as emerging, and will offer space, support and resources as they develop a new work for the stage. This unit is a place to foster new plays in development, and to help emerging playwrights/creators explore the craft of theatre creation. The first unit will run between October 2018 and May 2020.

Playwrights/Creators selected for the unit will benefit from:

- Monthly meetings with a dramaturg
- Professional development opportunities
- Reading(s) of works in progress
- Presence on PTE's website

To apply to the unit, please submit:

- A letter of intent that describes where you are in your journey as an artist and why/how you feel that this unit could be an important next step for you and your work
- A writing sample (maximum 15 pages) A bio/resume

The application deadline is September 28th. Please submit all material to Hazel Venzon, PTE Artistic Associate at: artisticassoc@pte.mb.ca

We thank everyone for their submissions. All applicants will be contacted with news of the status of their application.
