

PTE WORKSHOP:

Improv for Tabletop Role-Playing Games

Calling all aspiring dungeon masters and gaming enthusiasts!

Dates: Monday evenings, May 25–June 15
Time: 6:30–8:30PM
Location: Imperial Studio, Prairie Theatre Exchange
Facilitator: Toby Hughes

Description:

The workshop will involve theatre exercises to help lovers of tabletop role-playing games succeed in their games. Participants will take part in improv games to build their storytelling and character development abilities then put those new skills to use playing Dungeons and Dragons. This workshop is suitable for teens and adults (16+).

About the Facilitator:

Toby Hughes is a cross-class performer, with 6 levels in fighter (actor) and 4 levels in barbarian (improvisor). Toby has been playing tabletop role-playing games even longer than he has been performing on stage, which is to say a very long time!

Select Dungeons & Dragons credits include: Curse of Strahd (Human monk), Classic Greyhawk (Kenku rogue), Darksun (Aarakocra ranger), and Forgotten Realms (Classic human wizard).

Cost:

$120 for four two-hour sessions. If cost is a barrier to participation, a limited number of scholarships are available upon application, subsidizing the cost of the series to $60. The scholarships will be distributed by lottery.
