October 13–25, 2026

Preview: October 13 | Opening: October 14

WINNIPEG – Prairie Theatre Exchange will open their 2026-2027 season with a hockey play that swings! Tracey Power's GLORY, directed by Mariam Bernstein, tells the true story of the Preston Rivulettes: the most successful women's hockey team in the history of Canadian sports. Filled with high-energy hockey sequences, choreographed by Victoria Exconde, the show features Cora Matheson, Emily Meadows, Jada Rifkin and Katie Welham as the founding Rivulettes, with Cory Wojcik as their coach, Herb Fach.

Synopsis – Set in the 1930's, with the rise of fascism across the ocean and racism within our own borders, Glory is the uplifting and entertaining story of a group of Canadian women determined to break barriers and follow their dreams. With hockey sequences choreographed to 1930s swing music with a modern edge, Glory is a spectacular theatrical celebration of courage, teamwork and the thrill of the game.

"We're thrilled to be opening our 2026-2027 season with a story of gutsy determination, deep friendship, and facing hard truths in a changing world."

–Ann Hodges, Artistic Director of PTE

GLORY first premiered in 2018 as a co-production between Western Canada Theatre and Alberta Theatre Projects and described as a "bittersweet, entertaining and uplifting sports drama," by the Globe and Mail, calling it "one-part Bobby Orr, one-part Bobby Fosse." The story follows the real women behind the historic hockey team and responds to the political climate of the era through a distinctly Canadian lens.

"We must continue to fight for glory in desperate times, against adversity and prejudice and racism."

–Tracey Power, Playwright

GLORY will be presented in the Cherry Karpyschin Mainstage Theatre, on the third floor of Portage Place from October 13–25, 2026. A relaxed performance with onstage ASL interpretation is scheduled for Friday, October 23. Live Audio Description will be available the following evening on Saturday, October 24. For more information about accessibility at PTE, click here.

Single adult tickets for Tracey Power's GLORY range from $40–$63, with discounts available for seniors, student, arts workers, and patrons under 30. Tickets are available online at the box office, or by contacting a box office representative during office hours: 204-942 5483, or via email: boxoffice@pte.mb.ca.
