Welcome

TO PRAIRIE THEATRE EXCHANGE

A very warm welcome to the 2026/27 season at Prairie Theatre Exchange! We are so glad you are here.

We are thrilled to start the clock on the season with Glory – the story of a group of women who band together to do the seemingly impossible: through teamwork and an “elbows up” tenacity, they break into the male-dominated hockey world of the 1930s, becoming the most successful women’s hockey team in the history of Canadian sports.

Canadians today are no strangers to teamwork and “elbows up.” Like the women at the centre of Glory, we currently find ourselves learning about ourselves and discovering our strengths, together. At PTE, we share stories together that inspire, entertain, move or intrigue us – stories that help us understand who we are as Canadians, in this unique place and time.

Thank you for joining us today. Whether for the first time or as a longtime subscriber, you’re all an essential part of PTE. In supporting theatre at PTE, you’re part of a larger journey of fostering art and community in downtown Winnipeg. Thank you for being part of that team.

We hope to see you again throughout this season as we share in the power of good stories – shared, together.

It’s puck-drop time! Go, team, go!!

Meet the Playwright

PLAYWRIGHT'S NOTES

I've always thought the world of team sports and theatre were very similar. The camaraderie, the support and the united goal that is reached by working together as a fierce ensemble of players. The Preston Rivulettes were pioneers in the world of hockey. They fought to play a game they loved and we now continue that fight for them. This play is inspired by their story. It's a story that will let you experience a time, a country, a game and the lives of five simple yet extraordinary human beings who left a huge legacy. We must continue to fight for glory in desperate times, against adversity, and prejudice and racism. I am so grateful to have been a part of the original fierce ensemble of players that brought this story to the stage. I'm even more grateful now to watch as other fierce artists in our industry, such as the team at PTE, are drawn to telling this story with the same passion and determination that I originally felt.

LET'S GO, RIVS!!

Xo Tracey

Director's Notes

“Mariam. YOU'RE directing a HOCKEY show?” asked my nearest and dearest. “Why yes, yes I am,” I beamed. “Aaaaaand... LOVING it!”

Glory epitomizes what it is to be Canadian: overcoming underdog status, fighting injustice and prejudice, defying the weather, striving to fulfill our potential in this very big world, and inspiring others to do the same... and all through the great game of hockey.

Glory is based on one of the most inspiring chapters in Canadian history: the story of two sets of sisters who ignited a passion for women's hockey across the country, rocking the male-dominated sports world of the '30s with women who ranked with the best NHL scorers and goaltenders. It is a story about the empowerment of women – and everything they bring to the (macro and micro) game.

Glory is a story about the power – and profound importance – of female friendships. I am so happy to have had the pleasure of working with this wonderful cast, and I am especially grateful to have deepened my understanding and appreciation of each of the four young women at the heart of this show.

It takes a village to teach me about sports, and I'd like to extend deep gratitude to my coaching team: Wayne Buss!, Devin Lowry and Mike Paterson. Many thanks to Gail for the Jets tickets – you have created a diehard fan!

To the team at PTE, and to Victoria, Joseph, and our fearless stage management team, thank you for your incredible dedication and talent! Special thanks to Ann for the opportunity, and for her unwavering support during the process.

I hope you are as captivated by the rise of the Preston Rivulettes as I am, and that you leave the theatre inspired to reach beyond and make a difference for those to come. Tikun Olam.

Enjoy the show!

We create and gather on Treaty 1 Territory, the traditional lands of the Anishinaabeg (Ojibway), Ininewuk (Swampy Cree), Anishinewuk (Oji-cree), Dakota Oyate, and Dene peoples, and the homeland of the Red River Métis. As we gather to tell stories today, we so appreciate the original storytellers and stewards of this land.

Enriching Winnipeg's cultural heartbeat. A legacy of giving.

Proud to support Prairie Theatre Exchange and their production of GLORY. The Preston Rivulettes didn't just play – they changed the game.

THE ASPER FOUNDATION IS A PHILANTHROPIC SUPPORTER OF THE CULTURAL FABRIC OF WINNIPEG.

Nearly a hundred years ago, the families who built The Asper Foundation came to Canada searching for freedom and a better life. They brought with them a simple belief: when you succeed, you give back.

Since then, The Asper Foundation has woven itself into the heart of Winnipeg's culture — not just by funding performances or venues, but by creating moments that matter. Moments of belonging: pride, and shared joy.

It's about creating spaces where Winnipeggers can gather, reflect on their roots, and celebrate the stories and art that shape us. At its core, it's about strengthening the ties that make our community feel like home.
